DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Justin Scout on 1/28/2005

3. The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 28 preamble will read:

A hardware implemented method using a network of shuffle units comprising :

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-15 and 17-30 are allowed.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

5.1 Referring to claims 1-15 and 28-30, Wasilewski (U.S. Patent No. 5,341,425) discloses a method for uniquely encrypting data (see abstract). Wasilewski shows a system (see 130 in Fig.5) comprising data bit generator. The generator generates 1-n plurality of data bits (see unit 154). Wasilewski does not teach combining the data bits with the control signal. Wasilewski shows the combiner (see unit 156 in Fig. 5), but he does not teach or suggest the combiner including a network of shuffle units.

Referring to the instant claims, Richard (U.S. Patent No. 4.004.089) discloses shuffle units, but provides no motivation to be combined with Wasilewski.

5.2 Referring to claims 17-27, Shukla (U.S. Patent No.6.345.101 B1) discloses a cryptographic method for data communication and storage (see abstract). Shukla teaches XOR operations along with shuffling data blocks (see column 2, lines 55-56). Shukla, however does not teach or suggest control of XOR operations and a plurality of selectors recited in the instant claims. Shukla does not teach shuffle unit comprising flip- flops. Referring to the instant claims, Richard (U.S. Patent No. 4.004.089) discloses shuffle units, but provides no motivation to be combined with Wasilewski.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
